

TWO ASSAULTS BY STRIKERS.

Richard Peters Beaten Nearly to Death for Refusing to Quit Work at Brewery.

GARMENT MAKER STABBED

Louis Adler Wounded While Attempting to Protect One of His Employers—Unidentified Assailant Escaped.

Two assaults growing out of strikes were to-day reported to the police. One, which followed a strike at Clausen's brewery, may result in the death of Richard Peters, of No. 213 Madison avenue. The other assault is not so serious. It grows out of the garment workers' strike and Louis Adler is the sufferer.

Peters was assaulted last night. John Cody, of No. 87 Second avenue, and Martin Ryan, of No. 213 Madison avenue, were to-day held to await the result of his injuries.

Louis Adler Stabbed.

Louis Adler, nineteen years old, a clothing cutter, living at 11 Clinton street, and employed by S. Goldie & Sons, manufacturing clothing, on the third, fourth and fifth floors of No. 41 West Third street, was stabbed in the abdomen to-day by an unidentified man. Adler was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital.

GARMENT MAKERS MAY WIN STRIKE.

Leaders Report that 5,000 Have Returned to Work Under Satisfactory Contracts—Employers Deny Statements

There was little change to-day in the condition of affairs among the striking garment workers, who demand a fifty-six-hour working week, and that the manufacturers and not the contractors shall be the persons responsible for their time and pay. It was reported that 5,000 or 6,000 of the 20,000 strikers have returned to work after satisfactory settlement of the trouble, but the manufacturers contradicted the report.

At Beethoven Hall, in East Fifth street, the headquarters of the Garment Workers Council, it was said that the manufacturers were falling into line, and that the strikers' terms will be accepted. Proof of that statement was submitted in the form of half a dozen contracts said to have been signed by some of the small manufacturers of the east side. The manufacturers said they had offered contracts which had been accepted as satisfactory, but that the workmen have not returned. At the various union headquarters they were told that the strikers would not return to work until next week.

GARMENT MAKERS STRIKE IN NEWARK.

President of local union No. 34, of the Garment Workers of North America, this afternoon issued an order for a general strike of all the garment workers in Newark, numbering 1,500 men. Police reserves will be held in readiness to protect the property of the manufacturers.

Six hundred men went out yesterday in sympathy with the New York men because they were requested to work on goods consigned to New York.

LIFE SAVED ONCE; SECOND TIME LOST.

Hodder, Rescued from Drowning, Again Fell from Boat—His Head Stuck in Mud at Bottom.

(Special to The Evening World.) NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., July 23.—Alfred Hodder, forty years old, residing at No. 55 Bayard street, New Rochelle, a business man and prominent member of Christ Church, Pelham Manor, was accidentally drowned yesterday afternoon while fishing in Long Island Sound between Fort Slocum and Glen Island.

While the rowboat was lying at anchor a swell capsized the boat and threw Hodder and a man named Joseph Murphy into the water. Hodder could not swim but Murphy was an expert in that line.

The latter succeeded in righting the boat and getting Hodder back into it. A few minutes later Hodder observed a sugar box floating along and he suggested that they secure it, as it might contain treasures.

His companion warned him against the boat capsizing, but Hodder, laughing at this warning, leaned over the boat's side to reach the box. He lost his balance and fell headlong into the water. His companion waited over an hour to see the man rise, but he did not reappear.

The body was found late in the evening. Hodder had shot and driven his head deep in the mud.

$100,000 KENTUCKY FIRE. OWENSBORO, Ky., July 23.—The plant of the Owensboro Paper Mill Company and the plant of the Central Tobacco Company were destroyed by fire to-day. Loss, $100,000. Chief of the Fire Department, Albert T. Ennis, was overcome by the heat and is in a critical condition.

INSANE FUGITIVE RESCUED IN RIVER

Youth Found Swimming from Ward's Island Declares He Is No Lunatic.

Clinging to a plank in midstream, August C. Ward, twenty years old, was picked up opposite Ward's Island to-day by the steamer Middletown, from Hartford. He was taken aboard and landed at Pier 15, East River, where Capt. Mills was told by the harbor police that he was an escaped lunatic. Ward denies most emphatically that he is insane or has ever been. He talks rationally upon all subjects.

Shortly after 6 o'clock this morning the pilot of the Middletown saw something struggling in the water opposite Ward's Island. Turning to Capt. Mills he asked:

"Ain't that a man?"

"I believe it is," replied the captain. "His boat has probably upset."

Dressed in Underclothes. By this time the steamer was opposite the man, who began shouting for help. The Middletown was slowed down and Capt. Mills threw the struggling man a rope. He tied this about his foot and was hauled aboard the steamer. He was dressed only in his underclothes, and was furnished a suit by an employee of the boat.

When the Middletown reached Pier 15 Capt. Mills was surprised when one of the Harbor Police asked if he had noticed anything of a man near Ward's Island.

"He's an escaped lunatic," declared the policeman.

Capt. Mills then told of having rescued a man and Ward was brought out and turned over to the policeman. He protested that he was not insane, and that he had been there for some time. Capt. Mills told him to give him over to the policeman. Capt. Mills was undecided about the matter, as the man had talked rationally upon all subjects while on the Middletown. So interested was he in the case of the fugitive that he promised him that he would inquire into the matter, and he found him to be sane.

Held Prisoner for a Year.

Young Ward is an intelligent appearing man, well educated and claims that for more than a year he has been confined on the island without reason. In telling of his escape Ward said: "Shortly after 2 o'clock this morning I was in the grating of the window where I was confined and ran through the corner patch to the river. I found a six-foot plank there, and as I am a poor swimmer I took that along with me. I pushed off and started for Astoria. It was rougher than I expected and I had considerable difficulty in clinging to the plank. I don't think I would have been able to hang on much longer if the Middletown had not picked me up. "I have been on Ward's Island for more than a year now, and for what reason I do not know. I was employed as a stock-opener in the tinware department of Charles Broadway Toms, and one day I had a severe nervous attack. On the advice of the manager I went over to Hudson Street Hospital, and from there was sent to the Insane Pavilion at Bellevue, and from there to Ward's Island. There I have been working in the butcher shop, drying-room and kitchen.

"Tom Reid, the head of the tinware department, has offered to take me to his home in the country, but the Ward's Island people will not let me go."

Tells of His Relatives. Ward says he has a brother, William F. Ward, a druggist at No. 88 Ninth street, northwest, Washington, D. C., and that his brother-in-law, E. R. Emerson, is President of the Brotherhood Wine Company. A cousin, he says, is Mrs. Zula Ward, of No. 21 or 22 F street, northwest, Washington.

Ward says his mother lives at Braselton, Banks County, Georgia, and that she has written several letters to the asylum authorities asking as to his condition, and that each time they have replied that he is improving. He says that he has not been allowed to write to his parents, and that he has taken his true condition.

Capt. Mills Says He Is Sane. Capt. Mills of the Middletown, said that if that man is crazy, then he is under a delusion. He was in the pilot-house with Mate Warner. Warner turned to me and said that there was a man in the water who seemed to be in trouble. "When we got him aboard by the aid of a rope he was exhausted and we took him to the engine-room."

"The fellow was a big, husky man and talked just as well as you or I would. I hope he will come out of it all right, and I am glad that I happened to be there at that time, for I think he would have been drowned if he had been there ten minutes more. He seemed to be sane, and I think he will do all he can to help Ward. Policeman Farrell says that Ward did not try to go away from him, but told his story in a straightforward way."

A Brooklyn Lady TELLS THE STORY. CURED OF CONSUMPTION.

"For two years I was a great sufferer. My cough was severe and no medicine was able to cure me. "I went on coughing, month in and month out, until I was a perfect wreck of my former self. What I spit up was mixed with blood, and my breath constantly was getting shorter.

"I was losing in flesh and strength; I had constant chills and fever; in fact, I was heartbroken and discouraged of ever being well again. Nothing did me any good till I stopped taking medicine into my stomach and began breathing the healing oils of the Koch Inhalation into my lungs.

"I applied to the Koch Lung Cure doctors, at 48 West 22d st., New York, and they told me that they had cured cases worse than mine, and as I knew this to be true I began breathing those healing oily vapors into my lungs. My bad symptoms soon began to disappear; I gradually grew better and stronger until I was discharged as cured.

"I am now again a healthy woman, and as I am grateful I offer, of my own free will, my testimonial for publication, hoping that it will be the means of saving other lives.

"My address is 327 Irving ave., Brooklyn, where any one who knows me and tell you how truthfully I have spoken.

LENA HERZ."

Women's $3.00 Shoes and Oxfords for $1.00 Per Pair. WE REPEAT: "If you knew the real name of this splendid shoe the store could not hold all the people that would come in response to this announcement." began yesterday. And naturally there was a tremendous rush. Extra forces are on duty. To accommodate the customers that cannot get waited on in the regular Shoe Store on the Main Floor, we have opened a special department on the Second Floor just back of the escalator, with these shoes. This Extraordinary Sale Every Purchaser Is Delighted. The Values Are Unequalled. The Occasion Is Unprecedented. 12,000 pairs when the sale started. Plenty, of course, are left. You'll get just as good choice to-morrow as you did yesterday or today. When you see the shoes you'll say, "The greatest shoe bargain I ever saw." The story of the transaction is simple. The makers of a certain famous $3.00 shoe for women (quality fit for a queen), produced too many tan shoes and Oxfords. The demand wasn't up to the expectation, and the makers were hugely overstocked. They colored the shoes black by a secret indelible process, knowing their critical trade did not care whether the leather was dyed in the raw state or in the made-up shoe and rather than sell them in small lots to their agents they sold us the entire lot for cash at an extraordinary sacrifice. We got them, and now they are selling with a swiftness never approached before by any shoe sale. We Guarantee Every Pair Just as If You Paid $3.00. Before shipping up these shoes the makers stamped them "Boylston Hygienic Shoe," but in most instances the real name of the shoe can be easily read. See the window display. The lots include: BLACK RUSSIA CALF OXFORD, in 2 styles; some with thin flexible soles and some with welted soles. VICI KID OXFORDS, with flexible and welted soles. 4 STYLES OF LACED SHOES, in Black Russia Calf and Vici Kid; light and heavy soles. ALL WIDTHS AND SIZES.
